

Balloon Test Here Results in Failure

A gondola attached to a 651 by 75 foot balloon designed to carry a $100,000 payload into the stratosphere came loose prematurely Monday night and parachuted into a wooded area in the DeAnn community a few miles northeast of Hope. Workers were busy today trying to salvage the gondola.

This was the fourth and last dry run before valuable telescopic equipment would have been installed to take photographs from above the earth's atmosphere.

The balloon was sent aloft at 7:20 p.m. and begin to drift north-eastward. It was planned to track the balloon by plane to an area near Sherman, Texas. The balloon had climbed only a few hundred feet when the gondola, some 40 feet high, came loose and parachuted to earth.

The balloon continued in flight and out of control as the gondola carrying the instruments to guide it. The balloon will have to be abandoned. Efforts to track it proved fruitless.

There was no immediate word whether a new test will be made here. However, it was thought that such a test is necessary before valuable instruments can be sent up and the latest word has the test taking place in Texas, possibly Palestine.

The balloon that is to carry the 36 inch telescope into space originally was scheduled to be sent up here. The site was changed due to the number of plane flights over this area.

Yesterday's launching was spectacular but disappointing. Hundreds of local folks came and went all day as workers prepared for the launching. Finally, at dusk the cables holding the balloon were blasted loose and the huge balloon floated into the sky, surprisingly fast. As it rose the sun illuminated it, making it almost transparent. Shortly thereafter the gondola and its 8,000 pound dummy payload floated loose and the balloon continued climbing.

This was the second test to be tried at municipal airport. The first was in March and the balloon was landed successfully in Georgia. There was little hope that another test will be made here.

Dr. Martin Schwarzschild of Princeton University Observatory is technical director of the project. He said the final flight will send the payload high enough to obtain high resolution, good quality photographs and intensified images of objects of interest in astronomy and astrophysics.

Tanganyika Man to Study in Hempstead

Eleven agriculturists from Tanganyika arrived in Arkansas June 23. The group will remain in Arkansas until Oct. 12, except for one week which they will spend in Illinois. John M. Cavender, Extension Research and Training Officer, is serving as technical leader. The program calls for training in planning, techniques and the use of teaching aids; the fostering and use of clubs and societies in Extension work; 4-H and home demonstration training; and relationships between Extension and community development.

According to Cayce B. Smith, Assistant County Agent for Negro Work, one will arrive in Hempstead County July 8, to observe and get information and training that might be helpful after returning to Tanganyika. During his stay in the county he will be making farm and home visits with the agents and attending the club meetings. He will also spend one week in the home of a farm family to observe their farm operation. He will be a guest in the home of the John Snowden family of Nolen Community for this observance.

The giant balloon was fully inflated when this picture was taken at 3:30 p. m. Monday on the south side of Hope Municipal Airport — although it was 7:20 before the gondola was finally attached and the flight began. The gondola is the metal structure between the balloon and the fabric "pipelines" at left which fed helium gas into the bag.

State May Get Back Battle Flag

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas may get another of its Confederate battle flags back — this one from Iowa.

After Indiana recently returned two flags captured in the Civil War, Dr. John W. Ferguson, director of the Arkansas History Commission, wrote other northern states to see if they had any flags they would return.

Ferguson said Monday Iowa officials told him they had a flag which was captured July 4, 1863, near Helena.

Ferguson said Iowa officials did not promise to return the flag immediately but its Civil War Centennial Commission was planning a flag return program next year.

Welfare Not Affected This Year

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Welfare over this year's welfare grants will not affect payments in Arkansas.

The Senate is trying to attach a medicare provision to a House-approved welfare bill. This effort might tie the bill up indefinitely.

Adams said the bill would increase the maximum permissible welfare grant from $5 to $70. Arkansas is not affected, Adams said, because the legislature has set the state maximum at $5 and this cannot be changed until lawmakers meet again in 1963.

If the federal government approves a maximum grant of $70, Adams said, the Welfare Department will ask the 1963 General Assembly to bring the Arkansas maximum in line with it.

The 1961 Legislature boosted the maximum state grant from $55 to $60. The increase was granted April 1, and gubernatorial foes of Gov. Orval E. Faubus immediately charged it was timed to benefit the governor's fifth term campaign.

Some sources said the congressional squabble might cost Arkansas old age clients a small amount but Adams said this is not true.

"Congress last year increased the maximum grant from $5 to $66," Adams said, "but Arkansas did not use the extra $1. This extra dollar is what is in danger if the current bill gets sidetracked. Since Arkansas is not using it, the state won't be affected."

Paper to Be Sold for Judgment

MORRILLTON, Ark. (AP) — The Morrilton Democrat, owned and published by Gene Wirges of Morrilton, is scheduled to be sold at auction Thursday to satisfy a judgment against Wirges.

A hearing will be held today before Circuit Judge Audrey Strait of Morrilton on petitions for cancellation of the sale.

Notices that the Democrat would be sold were posted June 22, saying it would be sold to a judgment handed down by Judge Strait May 17.

Wirges said the judgment grew out of a contract he had with Rex Paul, now of Greenville, Miss., and formerly of Jacksonville, to purchase the Jacksonville Weekly Bulletin.

Wirges published the paper for a brief period, then sold it to the Sentinel Printing Co., Inc., of North Little Rock. A short time later the paper went out of business.

Paul sued Wirges for the purchase price, about $11,000, and Judge Strait ruled in Paul's favor. Wirges purchased the Democrat, which has a circulation of about 3,500, from Joe Hurley of El Dorado, and his mother, Mrs. Ione Hurley of Morrilton. In the past year the Democrat has been waging a crusade against alleged voting irregularities in Conway County.

Candidates to Meet Again

DARDANELLE, Ark. (AP) — The six Democratic candidates for governor are scheduled to meet again at the annual Mt. Nebo Chicken Fry at Mt. Nebo State Park near Dardanelle July 18.

John P. Cowger, chairman of the event, said Gov. Orval E. Faubus, Sid McMath, Dale Alford, David A. Cox, Kenneth Coffelt and Vernon Whitten will speak at 10-minute intervals between 7:30 and 8:40 p.m.

This is the 14th annual Mt. Nebo Chicken Fry. The event is a top political attraction in election year.

The only time the six candidates have appeared on the same platform so far was at the Pink Tomato Festival in Warren.

Governors Have Words on Several Issues

By JACK BELL

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Govs. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and Wesley Powell of New Hampshire traded sharp-tongued jibes today in a Governors' Conference discussion of transportation.

With Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California egging them on, the two Republican governors squared off over the issue of whether there should be a federal department of transportation.

Their clash came as reports circulated that the conference Resolutions Committee was having difficulty agreeing on any position on civil rights and medical care for the elderly.

Republicans previously had agreed at a caucus to attempt to force a floor vote later in the day on a strong civil rights statement.

They might agree on that, but Powell, the conference chairman and Rockefeller had trouble coming to terms on the transportation question.

It started with Rockefeller's recommendation at a panel session that the governors go on record for formation of a federal department of transportation. Powell, who has indicated he may oppose the New York governor for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination, objected.

The argument started when Powell snapped at Rockefeller: "Why don't you make your point and let me make my own?"

"Letting me finish my statement," Rockefeller fired back. "Please give me the courtesy Brown came in with the observation that 'I hate to see the two candidates for the Republican nomination at issue on this matter.'"

Turning to him, Powell asked: "How does Dick feel about this?"

This was a reference to former Vice President Richard M. Nixon who is opposing Brown's bid for a second term as governor.

"He knows more about centralized government in Washington than he would about California," Brown retorted.

Brown plugged for a department of urban affairs, with a transportation division, a proposal rejected by Congress.

Roikefeller said such a department would be a Frankenstein creation into which one third of the federal government would be poured. He said transportation programs ought to be handled through a staff set up in the White House, if there were objections to establishing a department.

The conference, which closes with a visit Wednesday to Philadelphia where President Kennedy will speak, got a series of invitations for forthcoming sessions.

Gov. Farris Bryant of Florida put in a bid for Miami in 1963, promising the governors they

3rd Strangulation in Boston Area

LYNN, Mass. (AP)—A third strangulation homicide within three weeks in Greater Boston—again following a pattern—confronted Lynn authorities today. The body of Helen E. Blake, 65, a practical nurse, was found in her apartment Monday night. Miss Blake had been strangled with her brassiere and a nylon stocking. Last Saturday night the body of Nina G. Nichols, 68, was discovered in her apartment in Boston's Brighton section. On June 14, the body of Ana E. Slesers, 55, was found in her Back Bay apartment in Boston. Mrs. Nichols was garroted with a nylon stocking, Mrs. Slesers was strangled with the cord of her housecoat. All were killed at night in their apartments where they lived alone. The three apartments were thoroughly ransacked, but police said nothing valuable was taken. All three homicides are unsolved.

State Protected Against TB

DENVER (AP)—Arkansas was one of only nine states that gave school children adequate protection against tuberculosis last year, the American School Health Association said Monday. Dr. J. Arthur Myers of Minneapolis, president, said last year nearly 250 children died and several thousand were disabled because their schools did not offer adequate tuberculosis screening programs. He made the remark at the National Education Association convention. At Little Rock, a spokesman for the Arkansas Tuberculosis Association, said the state Health Department offered voluntary tuberculin tests to students of selected grades in the public schools each year. Other states listed as offering adequate protection were Georgia, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana and North Dakota.

saunt with intent to kill. Circuit Judge William J. Kirby handed down three year sentences on each charge to both Louisiana girls. The terms are to run consecutively.

The Pickett and Childress girls, escapees from a Louisiana reformatory, were fleeing police April 12 when they failed to make a turn in a car in downtown Little Rock. The car, driven by Miss Childress, jumped a curb at high speed, struck two pedestrians and smashed into the front of a clothing store.

A. J. Trobey of Benton was killed and his wife was critically injured. The girls were charged placed in the Pulaski County Jail, with involuntary manslaughter and there, along with Diane Lambert, 17, of Fayetteville, they attempted a jailbreak. A gun was smuggled through a cell window and the three girls held officers at bay for about six hours before surrendering.

The jailer was shot in the back. The two men who smuggled the gun to the girls, and Miss Lambert are charged with intent to kill. Miss Lambert is now serving a one - year sentence for grand larceny.

Whitten Opens Headquarters

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Vernon Whitten of Mount Holly opened a gubernatorial campaign headquarters complete with a night depository for late contributors today. The depository was installed by the former tenant of Whitten's headquarters building — a savings and loan company. Whitten decided it would be a fine addition to his offices.

Whitten, who asked for financial help on a telecast last week, told a group which gathered at his formal headquarters opening that he was gaining confidence as the race progressed. Whitten said he appreciated the endorsement of the Pine Bluff Commercial which picked him as its candidate Sunday.

Impeachment Petitions

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Petitions calling for impeachment of six members of the U.S. Supreme Court were being circulated in Little Rock today. The Rev. W. A. Blount, president of the Metropolitan Association of Free Ministers, said he drafted the petition at the request of three lay members of his congregation.

Blount said 2,000 petitions, each with space for 28 names, were distributed. Blount said the association was not formally sponsoring the petition drive but it was co-ordinating the independence of Algeria.

France's last colonial administrator Christian Fouchet, conveyed De Gaulle's declaration to President Abderrahmane Fares of the Algerian Provisional Executive and transferred to the provisional government the sovereignty France had held for more than a century over Algeria.

The Evian agreements call for the provisional executive to rule Algeria until a Constituent Assembly is elected later this month and a parliamentary government takes over. It was believed Ben Khedda's Cabinet from Tunis would be merged with the provisional executive, and Ben Khedda would become president of the new combined executive.

Late Monday night, as crowds of cheering Muslims roamed the streets of Algiers celebrating the overwhelming vote Sunday for independence, guerrillas loyal to Ben Khedda's government took control of public buildings in the capital to deny them to Ben Bella's dissidents. Some 3,000 guerrillas th

Foe Declares Sen. Won't Face Issues

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Winston G. Chandler, a candidate for the Senate seat held by Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., accused his opponent Monday night of lacking "the desire to stand up and face controversial issues."

Chandler, in the first televised speech of his campaign, attacked the foreign aid program, the United States Supreme Court's prayer ruling, and what he termed the "Fulbright memorandum."

When the integration crisis broke out in Little Rock in 1957, Chandler said, Fulbright "took the first plane for Europe." Chandler, operator of a Little Rock trucking firm, said Fulbright supported foreign aid to Communist Poland and Communist Yugoslavia, which were lending money to Cuba and other Communist countries.

Fulbright's stand on Pentagon approval of military speeches, Chandler charged, "would gag our military men and prevent them from telling the truth about the cold war to the people."

Labeling himself a "conservative Democrat," Chandler said he favored an increase in personal income tax deduction from $600 to $1,200, and a fight "to the finish" against Communism, Socialism, liberalism and other forms of the Godless, left - wing conspiracy.

Chandler said he was against withholding of interest on income from bonds and securities, in favor of an "America-first" foreign aid program, a non-socialist farm program, and legislation to prevent deficit spending by the federal government.

He repeated his opinion that the six justices who voted the majority U.S. Supreme Court decision outlawing official prayers in public schools should be impeached.

Premature Baby Is Now Healthy

POCAHONTAS, Ark. (AP) — A baby born prematurely March 10 so small it barely covered a nurse's hands is scheduled to go home July 4 a healthy five pounds. Officials of the Randolph County Hospital said the baby spent its first 49 days in an oxygen tent under constant nurse's observation and care.

At birth the baby was so small it could not be handled, and so it was not weighed. The infant's weight probably would not have registered on hospital scales, anyway, officials said.

After the first month of life, the baby weighed one pound, eight ounces. The infant was fed every two hours by means of tubes inserted in the nostrils. The baby was also fed stimulants, anti-biotics and underwent breathing exercises.

Hospital officials, who withheld name of the child, said it was a very rare case.

Moving Safe Took Some Real Work

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — It took seven men six hours to move a 10,000-pound safe two blocks Monday.

The safe had to be moved on steel plates to keep it from crushing floors, sidewalks and the street.

Occasion for the move was relocation of Maxie's Reliable Loan Shop for 102 to 220 Main.

Owner Maxie Itzkowitz said he bought the safe in 1946. It has doors 12 inches thick and a complete burglar alarm system, including tear gas.

ing the effort. "We're hoping it will reach beyond anything local," Blount said. The petitions call for impeachment of the six justices who rendered a majority decision that required recital of official prayers in public schools is unconstitutional.

sters to assert their rule over a new nation threatened with civil war.

The triumphant return of the former rebel fighter was darkened by the threat of a military uprising by 4,500 mutinous Muslim guerrillas who want to put radical Vice Premier Ahmed Ben Bella in power. Ben Bella opposes Ben Khedda's policy of cooperation with France.

Ben Khedda flew from Tunis, his headquarters while he directed the exile regime in its campaign to throw off 132 years of French rule. He was the first to leave the plane.

Algeria's independence became effective at 10:30 a.m.—4:30 a.m. EST—as the result of a statement issued by De Gaulle following a special meeting of the French Cabinet.

"By the self determination vote of July 1, 1962," the statement said, "the Algerian people called for independence of Algeria, cooperating with France."

"In consequence, the relations between France and Algeria being henceforth founded on the conditions defined by the governmental declarations of March 19, 1962 (the Evian peace agreement), the president of the French republic declares that France solemnly recognizes the independence of Algeria."

would get a look at a Cape Canaveral space shot. His invitation seemed likely to be accepted later in the year by the Executive Committee.

Gov. Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey asked the governors to meet in Atlantic City in 1964, promising they could also visit the New York World's Fair on the same trip.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said he thinks the meeting ought to be held in New York but added he will cooperate with New Jersey.

Gov. Edmund B. (Pat) Brown said he wants the governors to come to San Diego, Calif., in 1963. He promised them a visit to Mexico. "And by the way," he said, "I will be there to greet you."

Brown faces reelection opposition in November from former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Not to be outdone, Rockefeller, also seeking reelection, said that if the governors come to New York in 1964, "I'll be there to greet you."

In a later session, Gov. Albert D. Rosellini of Washington was expected to be elected the new chairman, to succeed Gov. Wesley Powell of New Hampshire.

The future of the National Guard was the major item on the Monday agenda which wound up with the governors taking a "no compromise" position against the Kennedy administration plan to apply sanctions against the school district involved.

When sanctions are applied, Corey said, "We advise the public through newspapers, radio and television that, in the opinion of the California Teachers Association, conditions in the district are not conducive to professional work by teachers."

"We refuse the district the use of our teacher placement service, and we notify every teacher placement office in the United States of our stand."

"This brings the full force of public opinion to bear on the district. Public opinion carries a lot of weight where the schools are concerned."

Sanctions are never applied until all other means have failed, Corey said.

"But let me emphasize—this is not a strike," Corey said. "The teachers do not walk out on the youngsters. We leave open every avenue for correcting the bad conditions."

Group Seeks Stand on Gambling

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Representatives of the Arkansas Christian Civic Foundation said Saturday one Democratic candidate for governor and the lone Republican supported them on every question concerning gambling and liquor.

The ACCF officials said Democratic Kenneth Coffelt, and Willis Ricketts of Fayetteville wrote that they were in agreement with the foundation on the issues.

Former governor Sid McMath wrote the foundation a letter, officials said, expressing general agreement. Representatives of the foundation said three candidates, Gov. Orval E. Faubus, Rep. Dale Alford, D-Ark., and Vernon Whitton, did not reply.

Answers submitted by David Cox of Weiner were not clear, officials said.

Contract Agreement

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP)—The Bag-pak Division of the International Paper Co. and the International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphite and Papermill Workers have reached agreement on a new contract. The old contract expired at midnight, June 30. Among the increases were these: a three per cent general increase, a two-cent an hour increase for women, and increases of three cents for all maintenance journeymen, all production operators, all engravers, and designers and vulcanizers.

DOROTHY DIX

How to Get Your Man

By HELEN WORDEN RSKIN and I haven't spoken for three months. The reason we fell out was because I was jealous of her part over a new friend of mine. The other day she passed without speaking when we met by chance on the street. Pride held me back. Was I being as silly as she? I truly would like to be friends again but don't know how to mend the breach. —A.C.

Dear A.C.: Write your friend a little note saying you miss her and, if she's taken offense at anything you said or did, you are sorry because the slight was unintentional. If your mother will invite the friend and her mother to luncheon, so much the better. Conclude the letter with the invitation. If the girl doesn't respond, she's not worthy of friendship.

Dear Helen: I'm my own worst enemy; always quarreling with people for whom I care most. My sister has been goodness itself; testified for me in my divorce suit; cared for my two children while I job-hunted and, after I landed one, bought their clothes and saw them off to summer camp. Yet last night I called her a meddler and told her to stay out of my life from now on, all because she said the strain of my past year was telling on me and I suggested a weekend in the country at her expense. She left in a rage, crying and I'm in tears, too. Did you ever know such a dumb cluck as me? —Sad Sister

Dear Sad: Your sister is right. The divorce was evidently more being overly fond of my job. I than your nerves could take. If I want more than anything else to this be so, see your doctor. But be a wife, mother and homemaker. To me, that's the greatest role a woman can play. My widower agrees yet still goes his lonely way and I mine. We're neither of us babies; I'm 36, he 41.

Loving each other as we do, why hesitate? Do you suppose that the true reason is his fear of marriage, or could it be that I, just a blonde behind a cash register, am all right as a party girl, but not a wife? How can I convince him that we were made for each other? Should I say: It's marriage or good-bye? —Uncertain

Dear Uncertain: Your man is as good as gone once you press him to name the day. He, not you, should do the pursuing. Don't be too eager. Create the impression that you too, would think twice before marrying a second time. And you should, whether you do or not. You are young with the best years yet to come. Cultivate your talents. Believe in yourself. By now you must know the restaurant business backwards and, since you have an instinct for homemaking, how about going a step further and learning hotel management? Cornell University has an excellent department in this field. Write for particulars. See yourself as going up in this world, irrespective of marriage. That's the way to really get your man—if you still want him.

Dear Helen: My best friend later.

14 Nations to Talk Over Troubles

By DORIAN FALK

GENEVA (AP) — The 14-nation Laotian conference decided to thresh out its few remaining differences in private after the United States and Red China clashed over U.S. troops in Thailand at Monday's opening session.

Delegates agreed unanimously to leave the remaining issues to the conference co-chairmen, Britain's Malcolm MacDonald and the Soviet Union's Georgi Pushkin, to avert any more open squabbles that could jar the precarious Laos peace accords.

The Western powers are hopeful that if things go smoothly, the delegates can complete a treaty in two or three weeks to guarantee the neutrality and independence of the Southeast Asian kingdom.

Red China and North Viet Nam touched off Monday's exchange during a three-hour session of speeches welcoming the formation of a coalition Laotian government.

Red Chinese delegate Chang Han Fu accused the United States of heightening tensions in South east Asia by sending troops to Thailand and by "armed intervention" in South Viet Nam and the Formosa Strait.

North Vietnamese delegate Hoang Nguyen charged that the success of the conference was "seriously threatened by the presence of U.S. troops in Thailand."

W. Averell Harriman, U.S. assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs, protested that the Communists had broken conference rules by bringing up issues not involving Laos.

The question of U.S. troops in Thailand was out of order, he said, "just as it would be for me to raise the question of foreign military personnel who are well known to be present in North Viet Nam as well as certain other neighboring countries."

Red Chinese units have been reported in North Viet Nam.

The United States rushed a task force to Thailand in mid-May after the pro-Communist Pathet Lao rebels broke the cease-fire in neighboring Laos and swept up the close to the Thai border. The United States said its troops had been requested by the Thai government.

The United States began pulling out 1,000 Marines this week after the feuding factions in Laos patched up their differences and formed a coalition government. It kept 1,200 Marines and 3,000 Army troops in Thailand.

Politics Has Quieted Some in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

After a barrage of weekend activity, the Arkansas gubernatorial scene was relatively quiet Monday as candidates prepared for Fourth of July political fireworks.

Two candidates, Dale Alford and Kenneth Coffelt, fired at the administration Monday night. Vernon Whitton and Sid McMath made whistle stops while Gov. Orval E. Faubus, was in Hershey, Pa., attending the National Governors Conference.

Alford issued his plan for handling state deposits, at Monticello, saying it would eliminate "political patronage" in the distribution of funds. He proposed an Arkansas Treasury Distribution and Investment Control Act.

Alford said the capital and surplus of all the banks in Arkansas amounts to $88,100,500. He said the amount of funds deposited in state banks has been reported as $40 million.

Alford said he understood it takes $15 million monthly to run the government. The remainder, he said, should be distributed in every bank in the state on a ratio of not more than 30 per cent of its capital, plus surplus.

Coffelt charged that he was unable to obtain information on state cigarette taxes from the Revenue Commissioner Ted Donham. Donham said the information was definitely available. He said he had offered to give it to Coffelt over the telephone, but did not have

The J. C. Penney Co. announced the promotion and transfer of W. R. (Bill) Caldwell, manager of the Hope store for the past five years to be manager at Athens, Texas.

Mr. Caldwell has been active in civic affairs in Hope and Hempstead county, at the present he is the president of the Hope Chamber of Commerce, member of the official board of the First Methodist Church, past chairman of the Hope Retail Merchants Promotion Association. He was the first president of the Hempstead County United Fund, also a member of the Hope Kiwanis Club and past board member also a board member of the Hempstead County Industrial Board.

Mrs. Caldwell and their three children, Karan, Kim and Kathy will accompany Mr. Caldwell to Athens when he reports to his new assignment July 26th.

Mr. Caldwell stated that he and his family leave Hope with certain regrets as they have made so many true friends and they have loved making Hope their home. He has great faith in Hope and Southwest Arkansas and believes that it will grow to be a major area in the State of Arkansas. Along with this he would like to extend his personal thanks to the fine people of this area.

Mr. Caldwell's replacement will be announced in a few days.

time to work it up in writing. Coffelt questioned the six per cent bonus given wholesalers of cigarettes. Donham said the bonus, given to dealers who affixed stamps to packages, prevented the state from having to hire employees to do the job.

Whitten opened his campaign headquarters in Little Rock Monday with a new twist. The building he chose was formerly occupied by a savings and loan company. Whitten said he was using the night depository facilities for those who wanted to make late-hour donations.

McMath campaigned in Rogers, Bentonville and Springdale. David A. Cox of Weiner did not announce his itinerary.

Major Independence Day celebrations are scheduled Wednesday at Caraway, Corning, Portia and Piggott. Faubus has said he will appear at each.

Alford has scheduled appearances at Corning, Caraway and Piggott and will also appear at Mena, Beebe, Wilmet, Pocahontas, Mulberry and Quitman.

Whitten is to appear at Caraway Wednesday after stops at Hughes, West Memphis, Joiner, Wilson, Osceola, Luxora and Keisor Tuesday.

McMath is to speak at Crossett Tuesday and says he will be at all four major July 4 festivities Wednesday.

Donovan Hurts Indians Out of Losing Streak

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Subtract Dick Donovan from Cleveland and the Indians very well could be floundering around in the second division.

As it is, the top-of-the-line Indians are just a half game off the American League pace being set by the New York Yankees and Los Angeles Angels.

The Indians, in the throes of a five-game losing string that had knocked them out of first place, called on Donovan to be the stopper Monday night.

The tall right-hander, acquired in the trade that sent Jerry Jim Piersall to Washington, responded with a brilliant two-hit, two-run triumph over Baltimore in which he faced the minimum 27 batters.

The victory pushed his record to 12-3, which, subtracted from the Indians' 42-34 season mark, would put Cleveland below .500 and in seventh place.

New York and Los Angeles remained a half-game up on the Indians, the Yankees beating Kansas City 8-4 and the Angels edging Washington 2-1. B left the Yankees with a .004 hold on first place. Minnesota lost to Boston 4-3 and went 1/2 games off the pace, while Detroit edged Chicago 2-1.

In the National League, the Los Angeles Dodgers regained first place by beating Philadelphia 5-1 and 4-0 while the New York Mets were beating San Francisco 4-3. Pittsburgh defeated Houston 4-2. Milwaukee belted St. Louis 7-3 and Chicago and Cincinnati split, the Cubs winning the first 4-5 and the Reds taking the nightcap 4-3.

New York blew a 4-0 lead, fashioned on home runs by Roger Maris, Hector Lopez and Mickey Vernon, then rallied for four runs in the eighth against Kansas City. A sacrifice fly to Bill Skowron and Phil Linz' single each accounted for one run and Tom Tresh drove in two more with a single in the Yankees' winning rally.

A lead-off homer by George Aloush triggered a four-run Kansas City seventh inning that tied it up and chased Yank starter Bill Stafford. Luis Arroyo got the victory in relief, his first against two losses this season.

The Angels were out-hit 6-4, but half of them were homers, solo jobs by Steve Bilko in the fifth and Bob Rodgers' tie-breaker in the ninth. Tom Morgan (2-2), third Los Angeles pitcher, got the victory.

Two straight force outs at the plate helped Boston out of an eighth-inning jam and dropped Minnesota a full game back of Cleveland. With the bases loaded and none out in the eighth, the Red Sox' Mike Fornieles got Bob Allison to bounce back to the mound and Earl Battey to ground to third. Bernie Allen fled to center to end the threat. Ed Bressoud drove in three runs, including two on a single in the sixth that put Boston ahead to stay.

Sam Jones (1-2) struck out 10 and scattered six hits in pitching the Tigers past Chicago. He had a shutout going until Al Smith hit a homer in the ninth. Norm Cash hit his 21st homer for the Tigers.

Dodgers Get League Lead by Licking Phils

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

What's with Johnny Podres, the shrewd southpaw who can tie a modern major league record by striking out eight consecutive batters and hurl perfect ball for 6-2-3 innings, but is unable to pitch a full nine innings?

That was the puzzling problem confronting the Los Angeles Dodgers today after they regained first place in the National League Monday night by whipping Philadelphia 5-1 and 4-0 behind the sparkling pitching efforts turned in by Podres and Stan Williams.

Podres, whose medical history starts with a mysterious back ailment and runs through appendicitis, rib injury, pulled tendon and auto accident, tied the strikeout record set by Milwaukee's Max Surkont in 1953, and had a perfect game until two were out in the seventh.

An inning later he was standing under a shower.

The 29-year-old left hander's inability to go the distance now extends through 12 straight games. Off his 18-5 record last year, this figured to be his biggest season, but Monday night's triumph was only his fourth in 10 decisions.

Williams, on the other hand, did an about face and came through with a seven-hitter and his first complete game since April 30.

The twin triumphs, coupled with San Francisco's 4-5 loss to the Mets, put the Dodgers back on top again by a full game over the Giants.

Pittsburgh used a two-run single by Bob Skinner that touched off a heated dispute to beat Houston 4-2. Eddie Mathews hit a grand-slam homer that led Milwaukee to a 7-3 triumph over St. Louis and Chicago and Cincinnati split. The Cubs won 6-5, the Reds came back, 4-3.

In the American League, the first-place New York Yankees belted Kansas City 8-4, the runner-up Los Angeles Angels edged Washington 2-1, Cleveland blanked Baltimore 4-3 and Detroit squeezed by the Chicago White Sox 2-1.

Willie Mays' 22nd homer sent the Giants into a temporary 5-4 lead in the seventh inning, but the Mets came back with four unearned runs in the eighth to put it away. A bases-loaded walk to Felix Mantilla tied it before Gene Woodling cleared the bases with a double and gave the Mets their first victory over the team that last represented New York in the NL. The victory went to Ken MacKenzie (3-3), with Stu Miller (4-4) taking the loss.

Shut out on three hits for six innings by Colts' starter Hal Woodeshick (2-6), the Pirates broke it open with three runs in the seventh. Don Hoak's double drove in one run and Skinner's single knocked in the others. Skinner was ruled out after his hit because of interference by Pittsburgh coach Ron Northey, but the hit and runs were allowed to stand. That made Bob Friend (8-8) a winner.

Mathews' grand slam in the fifth inning off Ray Sadocki (5-5) paved the way for Lew Burdette (7-4) to record his seventh consecutive triumph with two-hit relief by Claude Raymond over the final 2-3 innings. Raymond got the call when Charley James hit a three-run homer in the seventh after Burdette had blanked the Cards on four hits—retiring 14 in a row at one stretch.

Ernie Banks powered the Cubs and Cal once (7-2) to the first game decision over the Reds with four runs batted in on his 22nd homer and a two-run single. That tagged Bob Purkey (13-2) with the loss. The Reds came from behind to take the nightcap as Gordie Coleman hit a two-run homer in the last of the ninth off Don Elston (2-4). Elston had nailed the opener for Chicago by choking off a Cincinnati rally.

17 Players Picked for Star Game

By HAROLD HARRISON

CINCINNATI (AP)—Manager Fred Hutchinson of the Cincinnati Reds named 17 players today to complete the roster of the National League All-Stars for the first of two All-Star games against the American League and he had a few surprises.

He named a seven-man pitching staff that included only one left hander. That was Sandy Koufax, of Los Angeles, who had an 11-4 record through Sunday and tossed a no-hitter Saturday night.

He went right along with the selections of players and named all of the second choices in player balloting which had determined the eight starters, excluding the pitchers.

In doing that and the selection of two utility outfielders, he bypassed his own Frank Robinson, the National League's Most Valuable Player of 1961 and one of the hottest hitters in the loop in the last month or so.

After naming the second-choice outfielders—Stan Musial of St. Louis, Hank Aaron of Milwaukee and Felipe Alou of San Francisco—Hutchinson picked veteran Richie Ashburn of the New York Mets and Johnny Callison of Philadelphia.

In addition to Koufax, Hutchinson named these pitchers to the squad for the first game, to be played at Washington on July 10 (records through Sunday in parentheses):

Don Drysdale of Los Angeles (14-4); Dick Farrell of Houston (5-8); Bob Gibson of St. Louis (9-6); Juan Marichal of San Francisco (11-5); Bob Purkey of Cincinnati (13-1) and Bob Shaw of Milwaukee (9-4).

The second of the All-Star games will be played in Chicago July 30 and Hutchinson can name three additional players for that tilt. Hutchinson, as manager of the 1961 National League champions, will manage the National League.

The starting players, except the pitcher, all of whom must play at least three innings except for injury or illness, were selected by players.

They will be Del Crandall of Milwaukee, catcher Orlando Cepeda of San Francisco, first base Bill Maerouli of Pittsburgh, second base Dick Groat of Pittsburgh, shortstop Ken Boyer of St. Louis, third base Tommy Davis of Los Angeles, left field Willie Mays of San Francisco, center field, and Roberto Clemente of Pittsburgh, right field.

Hutchinson named John Roseboro of Los Angeles to back up Crandall. For the rest of his infield reserves he named Ernie Banks of Chicago, first base; BATTING — Eddie Mathews, Braves, drove in five runs—four with a grand slam homer—in 7-3 victory over St. Louis.

Miss Moffitt Needs Rest at Wimbledon

By GOFFREY MILLER

Associated Press Sports Writer
WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—

Billie Jean Moffitt, the giant-killer of Wimbledon, faced a tough quarter-finals match against Britain's Ann Haydon today after two restful days free from tennis.

"I guess I needed the lay-off," said the girl from Long Beach, Calif., who sensationally knocked out the top seed, Australian star Margaret Smith.

"Last week was a pretty hectic time for me—just about the most exciting week in my life. I need relaxation more than practice at the moment."

With two other Americans, Billie Jean carries the sole remaining singles hopes of the United States. The men's field is reduced to four Australians.

Darlene Hard, of Long Beach, Calif., faces Mrs. Vera Sukova of Czechoslovakia today, and Mrs. Karen Hante Susman of Chula Vista, Calif., plays Renee Schuurman of South Africa.
